Infrastructures involved
Objectives: To refurbish the current Costume Museum building to become the flagship headquarters for the governing body and to house services and actions proposed in the Moncloa Campus project. The refurbishing in this action refers mostly to the tower of the building since the lower levels, currently used for exhibitions and other services of the Costume Museum (assembly hall, cafeteria, etc.) have already been renovated. They only need to be adapted to their new function which will be described in separate action documents.
Description of the action: This is a unique building which was awarded the national architectural prize and has recently been returned to the University. Due to its characteristics, excellence, emblematic value, past uses (it was the Contemporary Art Museum and currently is the Costume Museum) and location in the centre of the campus and the leisure area of the university, the coordinating Universities in the proposal wish to make it the Project headquarters. The following services, among others, will be located in the building: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Campus Museum (MUCAM).</li> <li>• The International Visitor and Reception Centre (CIVA).</li> <li>• The 'Madrid Global' office under the supervision of Madrid City Council and aimed at supporting the city's internationalisation in the area of research and higher education.</li> <li>• The offices for the Moncloa Campus governing body and organisation.</li> <li>• The Centre for Higher Studies on Moncloa Heritage (CEPAM).</li> <li>• The headquarters of the International Schools for Postgraduate and Doctoral Studies on the Campus.</li> <li>• The International Office for Communication and Knowledge Promotion.</li> </ul>
